THE FEDERATED CHURCH

"I was glad when they said unto me let us go up unto the house of the Lord." Do you enjoy going to church? You say the preacher preaches too long. Or his sermons are not interesting. Well all these things are more or less true. We will not quarrel about that, but maybe you haven't been there yourself — you heard that from someone else. Now, a great many people have told me it was just a habit that one could cultivate, either to remain at home or go to church.

Next Sunday morning the subject of the sermon will be: "Selling Out to The Devil or the Lord, Which?" The theme for the evening: "The Spirit of Fear." You are welcome. Good singing and good interest.
